It's time for a different kind of game! The princess has taken on a difficult mission: get a Christmas tree back that was stolen by the gnomes! They are determined to stage a big celebration in the capital - so a new holiday was born! Discover over 40 unique levels through the village, the town, the forest, the ocean, the desert, and many other enchanting places! So many intricacies and surprises - they are waiting for you! Help the heroes save the holiday! What should you do? It's late at night, it's snowing outside and the elf Eldric is preparing to go out with the cow Rose. The dishes are washed and the babies are asleep in their cribs. Eldric opens the front door and says: "Good night and Merry Christmas to you!" A smile shines from the cow's face. Her horn glistens as she mumbles: "Merry Christmas to you too!" And Eldric goes to the front door.

At the same moment, his cat Socks perks up his ears and starts waiting for Eldric's entrance. Hunkering down for a moment, Eldric takes a couple of sips of his cider and... Eldric has forgotten to turn off the kitchen lights. Get the year's first game on the home screen of your phone or tablet. Exclusively designed for casual gamers by

The princess delivered a shopping list to the gnomes, while she herself decided to accompany them on their shopping trip. The elves Eldric and Rose were at the store while preparing two lists. The princess was heading to the castle with a shopping list. A little later, she returned to the gnome kingdom to find two empty bags. "I'll never be able to leave them with the elves again. They have forgotten their duty. Gnomes are so simple; they can't understand anything else but their own profit," the princess thought. Yet the princess didn't

This is the sequel to our popular puzzle game "Santa's Christmas Solitaire" (released in 2016). Krampus will be stealing Santa's sack of Christmas presents with help from his army of teddy bears! You must play solitaire to help Santa recover the Christmas presents and defeat Krampus to save Christmas this year. Buy items from the Christmas store and play minigames to help you on your adventure. You will encounter Krampus and his little friends along the way which you will need to defeat in snowball fights. Can you save Christmas in time? non-parametric Mann Whitney test and Wilcoxon signed rank test or t-test, as appropriate. We used multivariate logistic regression to identify the predictors of delay in starting ART among HIV-positive women who presented for first ANC visit after 15 weeks of pregnancy. Age, residence, occupation, educational level, being single, history of previous birth and previous history of abortion were used as independent variables. We used SPSS 20.0 for windows for data analysis. Ethical considerations {#Sec10} ----- Ethical clearance was obtained from the Institutional Review Board (IRB) of Mizan-Tepi University. Informed consent was obtained from the participants before conducting the interview. They were informed that the research was voluntary and they could withdraw without giving a reason at any time. They were also informed that their responses would be kept confidential and used for research purposes only. Each study participant was assigned a unique identifier to ensure confidentiality of the collected information. Any distress felt by participants was handled according to the standard guidelines provided by the IRB. Results {#Sec11} ===== A total of 4,856 HIV-positive pregnant women were enrolled for ANC check-up. Ninety-two (1.8%) women of the enrolled pregnant women presented for first ANC visit after 15 weeks of pregnancy. The median age of these 92 women was 25 years (interquartile range: 22--30 years). The median number of ANC visits was 3 (range:

2--7). Sixty-one (66.3%) and 31 (33.7%) of the participating pregnant women were urban dwellers and farmers respectively. The median duration of pregnancy was 29 weeks (range: 17--38 weeks). The median gestational age at HIV diagnosis was 26 weeks (range: 17--34 weeks). The median number of weeks of ART before first ANC visit was 12 weeks (range: 5 c9d1549cdd takes level scaling in a whole different dimension. Through clever integration of various keywords that have multiple effects and very strong Energies, the idea is to not only allow for more use of BURN spells but to also make all playstyles worth even more with mana-drains (like Runecrafting if you want to control the tempo), mana-swipe and mana-burn. Storm yourself and all your opposing Shadowcasters with the powers of the forest.... it burns! The Level 7 keyword provides a damage boost to Shadowcasters, while the Level 8 keyword is a mana-swipe that works on unit's turn. So for a Shadowcaster, the spell "in it's flames, we can embrace its power...!" cast by a Forest of Light becomes a macro-focused spell that deals half of the target's maximum mana plus the caster's own, casting it for a total of 4 or 5 Damage. Now, of course these keywords are reminiscent of the pre-Canticle Keywords: Fire, Cold, Lightning or even Metal, but in this case, the spells have multiple effects that may be cast during the turn of a Shadowcaster. The reason why this theme is so powerful is because, in theory, these keywords would either increase the caster's mana, weaken the target or even completely deal a quarter of the spell's maximum mana. Doing so, you would either be forcing your opponent to remove a line of defense (removing "MP" from a single creature or lowering its current "HR" number), force him to improvise his turn and play a single spell that might not save him from depleting your resources (if you are mana-swiping or from draining his own mana) or force him to play a clunky spell that will have an hard time saving his life ("This will cost me 30 Mana out of Shadow."). But, you may wonder, "how big can a Shadowcaster do this?" The answer is the very very big: This big, this fast and this many spells at once make MANA MANA MANA MANA MANA MANA MANA. Let's just learn this ad-hoc low-level, as a deconstruction why the Spellstuff team created these keywords, how they synergize and how Shadowcasters can practically increase their power, even from 1 to 17. Before, we assess this mana big thing. Episode 0: Concept & Design As I wrote in Episode 1
